Facts of complaint

C's advised that they were walking their dog when two unsubs purposely walked into them and started assaulting them. While this assault was occurring, two Patrolmen, P.O. [redacted], and P.O. [redacted] drove up in their patrol car.

The two patrolmen jumped out of their car and immediately starting hitting the C's with their night sticks, while the two unsubs escaped.

Both C's were badly beaten, with extensive head wounds.

EUGENE YULISH, also known as (aka) Gene London and [redacted] New York, New York, [redacted] were advised of the identity of Special Agents (SAs) [redacted] who identified himself as SA of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) and that any information they furnish could be used in a court of law. YULISH thereafter provided the following information:

b6
b7C

YULISH stated that he and [redacted] were walking their dog in Greenwich Village on 7th Avenue when two unknown white males, one approximately five foot six, 150 pounds, 25 years of age with brown sandy hair and the second, six foot, 200 pounds, 25 years old and brown hair with a mustache walked into them and started pushing them. An altercation followed and after approximately five minutes a police car pulled up and two officers got out and started swinging their night sticks hitting both LONDON and [redacted]. During the above altercation, the two white males who initiated the argument walked away.

b6
b7C

YULISH advised that Police Officers [redacted] and [redacted] then arrested him and [redacted] for attempted Grand Larceny, disorderly conduct, resisting arrest, and verbal harassment.

b6
b7C

The police officers then took LONDON and [redacted] to the 6th Precinct, for booking and 45 minutes later to Mother Cabrini Hospital for medical care. Both LONDON and [redacted] received stitches in their heads to close wounds obtained in altercation. They were then taken to central booking where Police Officer [redacted] took YULISH's identification and processed both [redacted] and LONDON.

b6
b7C

After completing processing at central booking at approximately 3:00 p.m., YULISH and [redacted] were taken to the 25th Precinct and locked up in a holding cell. At 8:00 a.m. on April 26, 1982 they were returned to central booking at 100 Centre Street, New York, New York where YULISH advised that during the above period he requested an opportunity to call his doctor because he needed his blood pressure pills, but the police officers refused his request.

[redacted] New York, New York was advised of the identity of Special Agent (SA) [redacted] who identified himself as a SA of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI). He was advised he was being interviewed as a witness to an alleged Civil Rights violation involving the arrest of EUGENE YULISH, also known as (aka) Gene London and [redacted] by Officers [redacted] Badge Number [redacted] and [redacted] Badge Number [redacted]. He was advised that any information he furnished could be used in a court of law. [redacted] furnished the following information:

b6
b7C

On April 25, 1982, he was arrested by Police Officers [redacted] and [redacted] for [redacted] and was being transported to the 6th Precinct for booking when the police officers observed a fight on 7th Avenue. They immediately stopped their patrol car and walked over to the location of the altercation.

b6
b7C

[redacted] remembered that he observed an oriental man punching a white male while sitting on top of him. [redacted] advised that Officer [redacted] pulled the oriental male off the white male using his night stick.

b6
b7C

At that time a second white male who immediately identified himself as GENE LONDON ran over to Officer [redacted] and grabbed [redacted] night stick. Police Officer [redacted] told LONDON to drop his night stick but LONDON held on to it while he yelled at Officer [redacted]. Officer [redacted] then came to [redacted] assistance and hit LONDON on the head with his night stick.

b6
b7C

At this time the second white male who had been lying on the ground rushed toward Officer [redacted] yelling at him to stop hitting his friend (meaning LONDON). Officer [redacted] then hit the second white male over the head with his night stick.

b6
b7C

[redacted] further advised that the two police officers tried to get the two white males under control, but the two white males continued to yell obscenities at the officers. [redacted] then hit LONDON a second time.

He was advised that any information he furnished could be used in a court of law. [redacted] furnished the following information:

At approximately 4:00 AM on April 25, 1982, he was in the Wok Chinese Restaurant, 173 7th Avenue South, New York, New York, where [redacted] accompanied by [redacted] and [redacted] when he heard arguing going on in front of the restaurant. At that time, he did not notice who was arguing [redacted]. A while later, [redacted] heard a banging on the restaurant windows, and at that time, he noticed two White males, first male approximately five feet ten inches, thin build, and the second male, approximately five feet ten inches, thin build, fighting with each other.

[redacted] then observed a police car pull up in front of the restaurant and noticed two uniformed police officers, one a White male, the second a Black male, exit the patrol car and walk over to where the fight was.

[redacted] stated that the two police officers stepped between the two fighting men and separated them. The two men then started yelling at the officers at the same time they tried to continue their fight with each other.

[redacted] stated that the two unknown males then pushed themselves together and resumed the fight when the White police officer hit one of the fighters over the head. [redacted] then noticed that the second fighter was also bleeding from the head but did not notice who caused that wound.

AFFIDAVIT

Docket No. 2N026990

COUNTY OF NEW YORK)

GENE LONDON, being duly sworn, says:

1. I am the defendant herein, and I have been charged with the violations and crimes of Disorderly Conduct, Harassment, Obstructing Governmental Administration, and Resisting Arrest allegedly committed on the 25th day of April, 1982. At least that is the present complaint against me, sworn to on May 25, 1982 before the HON. IRVING LANG, by Police Officer Shield # .

b6
b7C

2. However, I have been informed by my attorney that at the time of my arraignment in Night Court on April 26, 1982, the complaint against me signed and sworn to by the same Police Officer was Resisting Arrest, Disorderly Conduct, and Attempted Grand Larceny in the 3rd Degree. This variance

b6
b7C

in complaints will be discussed at greater length in the affidavit of my attorney, [REDACTED], which is being made in support of this motion.

b6
b7c

3. The facts and circumstances surrounding the bringing of the various charges enumerated above, were as follows:

4. In the early hours of the morning of Sunday, April 25, 1982, my associate, [REDACTED], and myself, decided to leave my residence at 10 Gramercy Park South, N.Y.C., where I own a cooperative apartment, to take a walk and for a bite to eat. It was an extremely mild spring day, unlike the weekends we have had recently in the City of New York, and both [REDACTED] and I were dressed casually in denim jeans and denim shirt jackets. We had with us my dog who sometimes responds to her name, MOODIE. We walked to the well known pizzeria - RAY'S - , at 12th Street and Avenue of the Americas, and to our surprise found the premises closed. We then decided to continue walking in Greenwich Village, keeping our eye open for another possible eating place. When we arrived at Perry Street and Seventh Avenue, much to our surprise two men, modishly dressed, rushed across Perry Street and made insulting and derogatory remarks to my friend [REDACTED] and myself, as being "faggots" and similar statements. When [REDACTED] responded to the effect that they should mind their own business, one of the men pushed [REDACTED] and simultaneously hit him a blow on the side of his face which caused them to start a scuffle. I attempted to intervene and to separate them, and much to my surprise, the second man started to pull me and strike me and as I bent over to assist [redacted] to his feet, a police car drew up to the scene, two officers rushed out, and without further adieu, proceeded to strike me over the head with a nightstick severing an artery under my scalp, and causing me to bleed profusely, and when I attempted to ward off any further blows, I was seized, my hands placed behind my back, and handcuffs were put on me. At the same time, the other officer proceeded to help my companion, [redacted] to his feet, and just before he was able to arise and straighten out, hit him a blow in the middle of his head, lacerating his scalp and causing him to bleed. Annexed, hereto, as Exhibit "A", and made a part hereof as though herein set forth in full, are photographs taken of [redacted] and myself the day after our release from Court, April 27, 1982. The original of these photographs will be submitted to the Court for inspection.

b6
b7c

b6
b7C

5. [redacted] likewise, was handcuffed, and we both were placed in the Squad Car with another prisoner who had been previously arrested by the police officers. No attempt had been made to detain either of the two assailants, and they took off. When we got to the police station - the 6th Precinct - presently located at 233 W. 10th Street, N.Y.C., but still known as the "Charles Street Stationhouse", the police refused to listen to my attempts to identify myself and

b6
b7C

to give them some idea of my background, and finally, reluctantly, they made a call to my accountant, [REDACTED]

b6
b7C

[REDACTED] in the immediate vicinity at [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] N.Y.C., to come to the stationhouse and take custody of my poor frightened dog, which he did. [REDACTED] saw me and [REDACTED] in the police station with our blood spattered clothing, and I believe we were still bleeding from the head wounds. His affidavit is herewith annexed and made a part hereof.

6. Thereafter, we were taken by the police to the Mother Cabrini Hospital, located at 227 East 19th Street, N.Y.C., where sutures were put in my scalp and that of [REDACTED], and some of the blood was cleaned from our faces and heads, and we then returned to the stationhouse.

b6
b7C

7. We were moved from the stationhouse to a place I understand is called "Central Booking", and then, although it was the early hours of the morning of Sunday, the 25th, no effort was made to get us to Court that day, and we were removed from "Central Booking" at about 2 P.M., and taken to the 26th Precinct in Harlem, at 500 West 126th Street, where we remained overnight.

8. Finally, on Monday, the 26th of April, we were brought from the 26th Precinct to 100 Centre Street, N.Y.C., and at approximately 11 o'clock in the evening of the 26th of April, [REDACTED] and myself were arraigned before the HON. BUD GOODMAN, Judge of this Court. JUDGE GOODMAN questioned the District Attorney and

b7C

the police officer as to the theory supporting the charge against me of "Attempted Grand Larceny - 3rd Degree", a copy of this complaint, which was signed and sworn to before JUDGE GOODMAN the night of April 26th, is hereto annexed as though herein set forth in full, as Defendant's Exhibit "B". The dialogue between JUDGE GOODMAN, the Assistant District Attorney, and Police Officer [REDACTED] developed that the Attempted Grand Larceny Charge was founded upon my seizing the nightstick in an effort to protect myself from being struck further by Officer [REDACTED] and that although the nightstick's value was a questionable $12.00, the Grand Larceny theory was developed as an attempt at a theft "from the person" of Police Officer [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] has advised me that apparently the original booking was even worse in that the fingerprint record attached to my file indicates that I was arrested for a "Violent Felony", to wit: "Attempted Robbery", namely violation of Sections 110/160.10 of the Penal Law.

b6
b7C

9. Both [REDACTED] and myself have been personally examined by private physicians, and the findings will be submitted at the time of the return of the motion.

b6

PERSONAL BACKGROUND

10. As appears in the annexed photocopy, Exhibit "E", from Marquis "Who's Who In The East", I was born June 9, 1931, in the City of Cleveland. My father's name was ISADORE YULISH, and my mother's maiden name had been MINNA SCOTT. My father was in the retail produce business. I was the second of four sons resulting from the marriage of my father and mother. I attended public school in Cleveland until 1947 when my parents moved to Miami, Florida. I accompanied them and eventually graduated from the Miami Beach High School. I attended the University of Miami for one year in a Liberal Arts course, and then started working in radio as an actor. My acting career really started as a puppeteer. My first appearance in connection with a puppet show was on WOR in a show known as "Little Tom Tom", on which show I not only acted in, but I also wrote. From that I went with [redacted] at NBC, where we were for about two years. I, together with [redacted] put on a puppeteer show. After that, I appeared on ABC, Channel 7, in New York, on a show known as "Tinker's Workshop", and subsequently I was with CBS in Philadelphia in a show appearing on their station WCAU-T.V, for twenty-three years. It was a children's show, I was the host, principal writer and director of the show. As you can see from the item in "Who's Who in the East", I have performed and lectured at the Museum of Modern Art and I am known as an authority on my good friend, the late WALT DISNEY, and animation films in general. I presently lecture, sporadically, at the New School For Social Research in the Film Department being an instructor in the Art of Animation-Walt Disney. I continue to give lectures, sporadically, at the Museum of Modern Art and the Philadelphia Museum of Art, and I have appeared at various museums and schools throughout the country. Some of my lecture work is Pro Bono, and most often,

b6
b7c

I have received honorariums and fees for my expenses and appearances.

11. I presently maintain myself by my lecturing, together with various interests I have in real estate in the area of the City of New York. I presently own my own apartment in a co-op at 10 Gramercy Park South, N.Y.C. Over twenty years ago, my accountant, [redacted] and myself, invested in a townhouse in the Chelsea District at [redacted], N.Y.C. at which address we rented most of the premises and received income therefrom. The premises have been sold, and we are presently receiving interest and payments on account of principal from a Purchase Money Mortgage we took back when we sold the premises.

b6
b7C

12. I have used the name of GENE LONDON in connection with my professional work as being a much simpler name for the public to recall. Annexed hereto, as Exhibit "C" and made a part hereof, as though herein set forth in full, is a news release issued by the Philadelphia Museum of Art, and released on December 10, 1980, concerning a series of lectures presented by me, and although it was free to the public, the cost of the lectures and the fees of the lecturers were underwritten by the Mutual Assurance Company, and the Hosiery Corporation of America. I am also annexing, as Exhibit "D", an excerpt from the 1975 catalog of the New School for Social Research concerning my lectures there about animated cartoons and WALT DISNEY. I have appeared at the New School since then, on an individual lecture basis.

13. I am reasonably certain that I am the first member of the YULISH family who has ever been arrested and charged with any crime. My brother [REDACTED], is a practicing lawyer of excellent reputation in the City of Cleveland, Ohio.

b6
b7C

14. I have, at all times, attempted to conduct myself as a law abiding citizen. I submit the fact that I have recently celebrated my 51st birthday, having lived in urban communities such as Cleveland, Miami, Philadelphia and New York City without ever being charged with any violation of law, testifies to my law abiding nature and general peacefulness. The charges that have been made against me have upset me greatly, perhaps even more than the severe physical assault upon my person, although it is virtually impossible to describe the effect of a blow in the middle of your skull by a hefty police officer with a heavy hardwood nightstick. I have agonized over the reason for the police taking the violent action against [REDACTED] and myself, and disregarding the two men who had assaulted us, and the only explanation I have been able to arrive at, is the fact that the other two men were dressed formally with jackets and ties, while [REDACTED] and I were casually attired.

b6

Honorable Court grant my motion to dismiss the charges against me, for all of which no prior application has been made.

AFFIDAVIT

GENE LONDON, :

Docket No. 2NO26990

STATE OF NEW YORK)

COUNTY OF NEW YORK)

[redacted] being duly sworn, says:

b6
b7c

1. I am a [redacted] and conduct my business under the name of [redacted] [redacted], in the City, County and State of New York. I reside at the same address, and I own the building in question. I am a honorably discharged veteran of World War II, and have never been arrested or convicted of any crime, offense, or violation. I have known the defendant GENE LONDON for over 25 years, both professionally and socially. At one time he and I owned the townhouse located at [redacted] in the City and County of New York, where each of us had apartments of our own and rented the balance of the premises. In the 20 odd years I have known GENE, I have never known him to be assaulted or disposed to act in an violent manner, nor have I ever heard anyone mention the fact that he was of an assaultive nature.

2. In the early hours of the morning of Sunday, April 25, 1982, I received a telephone call from the 6th Precinct and was informed that my good friend GENE LONDON had been arrested and requested that I come to the police station. After recovering from the shock of hearing that GENE had been arrested, I managed to get dressed and get over to the stationhouse which is in the immediate vicinity [redacted] I was shocked when I walked into the stationhouse and saw GENE bloodied and his co-defendant, [redacted] likewise dripping with blood. There was an ambulance attendant standing in the stationhouse, GENE was pleading that he be released, attempting to tell the Desk Sergeant and the officers assembled that he was not the aggressor, but that he and [redacted] had been the victims of an unwarranted assault by two civilians, and then by two police officers. He attempted to explain his background in the T.V. industry and his prior good record, all to no avail. I noticed a police officer, whom I later learned to be the arresting officer, [redacted] standing and smiling in a supercilious manner as though he were enjoying the plight and desperation of both GENE LONDON and [redacted]. His attitude seemed to me to be a form of paranoia, although I do not profess to be a professional psychiatrist or psychologist. I managed

b7C

to take the dog from the stationhouse, and to the best of my recollection, before I left there, the police had finally acceded to the request of GENE LONDON and [] for medical attention and they were taken to Mother Cabrini Hospital.

b6
b7C

3. I sent a telegram to Police Commissioner ROBERT J. MC GUIRE complaining of the obvious excessive use of force on a man of MR. LONDON's age and physical capacity, and the impropriety of the arrest of MR. LONDON and []. Thereafter I received a communication from the Civilian Review Board and I furnished them with the details that I knew.

b6
b7C

4. In the interim, I got in touch with [] [], the only lawyer I knew, since he had handled various real estate matters for me and for GENE, including the sale of the premises on []. Although [] is not and does not profess to be familiar with the practice of law in the criminal field, he appeared at the arraignment in the late evening of Monday, April 26th, and was shocked both at the physical condition of the defendants GENE LONDON and [] and the temerity and brazenness of the police and the prosecuting attorney to attempt to justify the arrest of GENE LONDON by charging him with a "felony", namely the attempt to commit the crime of Grand Larceny, it being alleged that GENE had attempted to get possession of the nightstick of Police Officer [].

b6
b7C

-19-

5. MR. LONDON's present attorney, []
[] has informed me that this is set forth in detail in the affidavit of MR. LONDON, including the dialogue between the presiding Judge, JUDGE GOODMAN, the Assistant District Attorney present, and Police Officer [].

b6
b7C

6. I was present at the arraignment and, as a lay person, it shocked my conscience to hear a prosecuting attorney attempt to justify the arrest and assault on GENE LONDON with the excuse that he had attempted to commit the crime of Grand Larceny of a nightstick less than $20.00 in value when he attempted to defend himself and [] from being brutally and unjustifiably struck and assaulted.

b6
b7C

7. Since my complaint to the Police Commissioner, ROBERT MC GUIRE, and response from the Civil Review Board, I have received several telephone calls from an Assistant District Attorney by the name of []. As of the time I spoke with [] the attorney for GENE LONDON and [], I had not as yet spoken with [] or any other Assistant District Attorney. If, between the time of the dictation of my affidavit, and the return of the motion herein, I might have occasion to speak with any Assistant District Attorney, I wish to assure the Court that the only thing I could and would tell them was that, in my opinion, the charges made, and the excessive force used on two law abiding

b6
b7C

citizens, GENE LONDON and [REDACTED], was improper, unnecessary, and any charges made against them should be dismissed. In fact, in my humble opinion, they should be COMPLAINANTS and not defendants. b6 b7C

WHEREFORE, I respectfully join in the prayer and request of GENE LONDON and [REDACTED] that the complaints against each of them be dismissed in the Interest of Justice.

[REDACTED], having read the affidavit prepared by [REDACTED], has added the following:

1. At the Criminal Court Building, prior to MR. LONDON's arraignment, I questioned Police Officer [REDACTED] in the hallway of the building as to what happened to the other two parties who had assaulted MR. LONDON and [REDACTED]. He informed me that they had gotten away. I asked him if he made any attempt to locate them, and his answer was "no".

b6
b7C

2. From the reaction in the stationhouse, I asked him if the two people who originally assaulted MR. LONDON and [REDACTED] to coin a phrase, were "fag-bashers", because they were succeeded by two additional "fag-bashers" in the uniform of the City of New York Police Department. Both officers are from the Tactical Patrol Force. These are the "Gestapo" riot breaking police. In the stationhouse with MR. LONDON and [REDACTED], dripping with blood, and pleading for mercy and understanding, I watched the police officer's face. It is my belief that this officer needs psychiatric care.

b6
b7C

3. I have subsequently spoken to the Captain of the 6th Precinct, CAPT. [REDACTED], who is unhappy with the arrest

b6
b7C

in his stationhouse, and said to me, over the phone, "MR. LONDON and were improperly booked."

AFFIDAVIT

Docket No. 2NO26990

STATE OF NEW YORK)

[REDACTED]

being duly sworn, says:

b6
b7C

1. I am an attorney at law, duly admitted to practice in the State of New York, and I have been retained as the lawyer for the defendant herein.

2. I have been advised by [REDACTED], an attorney at law in the City of Cleveland, and an associate of [REDACTED], the brother of the defendant, that he had attempted, telephonically, to effect a disposition with Assistant District Attorney [REDACTED], and that he had been advised by [REDACTED] that it would be a bargain if the defendant pleaded guilty to the offense of Disorderly Conduct, and paid a fine of $250.00. Never having heard of the provision of our Criminal Procedure Law for the Adjournment of a Misdemeanor Charge in Contempla-

b6
b7C

tion of a Dismissal, [] advised the defendant to accept the "extremely generous offer" of the prosecutor.

b6
b7c

3. That when the defendant appeared before the HON. IRVING LANG, without counsel, on the 25th day of May, 1982, and attempted to plead guilty, JUDGE LANG, protecting the interests of the defendant herein, refused to accept the plea without the defendant/^{herein}represented by an attorney at law, and adjourned the matter to the 3rd day of June, at which time I appeared and filed a Notice of Appearance as the lawyer for the defendant herein. I have gone over the facts surrounding the arrest, booking, and original arraignment of the defendant. Not only have I found them fascinating, but most unusual.

4. The attempt to pin a title of "violent felony offender" on this defendant by reporting his arrest, among other things, as being "for attempted robbery in violation of Sections 110 and 160.10 of the Penal Law" under the circumstances described by both the defendant and the complaint of the Police Officer, is not only unusual, but I submit reprehensible. The description of what must be considered an amended or superceding complaint, sworn to May 25, 1982, before the HON. IRVING LANG, which, among other things, alleges that the "defendant, with intent to cause public inconvenience, annoyance or alarm, of wrecklessly creating a risk thereof, engaged in a physical altercation with an unidentified male" is some of the most creative writing by a prosecutor that I have read in over 54 years of active practice in the criminal law field in the City and State of New York. Likewise, the paragraph of the current complaint, charging the defendant "with intent to harass, annoy or alarm deponent * * * * in that defendant tried to pull deponent's nightstick from deponent's hand" likewise is creative writing, plus apparently contradictory to the original complaint in that therein on April 26th, before the HON. BUD GOODMAN, the same Police Officer [] states "that he was compelled to use necessary force in effecting the authorized arrest of the defendant in that the defendant did struggle with an attempt to take possession of Police Officer [] nightstick". A photocopy of this complaint is annexed hereto as Exhibit "B" and made a part hereof as though herein set forth in full. I have attempted to order the minutes of the arraignment which should contain the dialogue between JUDGE GOODMAN, Police Officer [] and the Assistant District Attorney on duty, but so far have not been able to contact the court reporter whose name appears to be []

b6
b7c

5. I respectfully submit that it is most unusual for the District Attorney to prepare a superceding or amended complaint without any indication that it is anything but the original.

6. I submit this affidavit in support of the motion of the defendant herein to dismiss the complaint in the interest of justice, pursuant to Section 170.40 of the Criminal Procedure Law. This section lists the criteria to be considered by the Court in considering whether or not to dismiss a charge in the interest of justice, and I set forth the following discussion of these criteria, as applied to the instance case: (a) The Seriousness and Circumstances of the Offense. In the instant case, the charges against the defendant are two misdemeanors, namely, violation of Sections 195.05 and 205.30, Obstructing Governmental Administration, and Resisting Arrest. The foregoing affidavit of the defendant clearly delineates the circumstances under which he found himself defending his friend, [REDACTED] and himself from an unprovoked assault by two strangers. The two other charges in the complaint against the defendant, namely Violation of Sections 240.20 and 240.25, disorderly Conduct and Harassment, respectively are less than a misdemeanor and classified in the Penal Law as "violations". (b) The Extent of Harm Caused by the Offense. I respectfully submit that it is apparent that no harm to anyone, other than the defendant, and his companion, [REDACTED] was caused by the actions of the defendant. The harm to each of them was, to say the least, extremely severe and unwarranted by the incident described in either of the complaints, or the foregoing affidavit of the defendant herein. (c) The Evidence of Guilt.

b6
b7c

I submit that there is a serious question as to whether the actions of the defendant herein were criminal in nature. Certainly he, like any citizen, has a right to defend himself and his companion from an unwarranted assault by strangers which is what occurred here. The attempt to create a felony by originally charging the defendant with Attempted Grand Larceny in the 3rd Degree, I respectfully submit, speaks for itself, and is indicative of the fact that the prosecutor was aware that the arrest was unwarranted and therefore, the attempt the police officers, likewise, was unwarranted, so that the attempt to bolster the charge "by creative writing". Likewise, the indication in the fingerprint record, attached to the papers, to the effect that the defendant was originally charged as committing a violent felony, namely Attempted Robbery in violation of Sections 110/160.10 of the Penal Law is indicative of the knowledge and realization of the arresting officers and/or their superior, that the violence committed by the police was not justifiable under the circumstances, and had to be justified by improper and false charges. (d) The History, Character and Conduct of the Defendant. The defendant is 51 years of age, and has no prior conflict with the law. In other words, not only has he never been convicted of any violation of law, but he has never previously been charged or arrested as a violator of the law. The public image which to a limited extent established by the Exhibits hereto annexed, are indicative of a law abiding character and one not given to violence in any way, shape, or form. (e) Any Exceptional Serious Misconduct of Law Enforcement Personnel in the Investigation, Arrest, and Prosecution of the Defendant. I respectfully submit that based upon the preceding affidavit of the defendant, which is a part of this motion, and is considerable evidence of unlawful actions by the arresting police officers. I further submit as I have pointed out, supra, it is clearly evident that the charges in this case and the complaints in this case are, to say the least, the product of creative drafting by the Office of the Prosecutor, founded upon the creative over-charging of the defendant by the Police, all of which points to and leaves one with the inescapable thought that both the Police and the Prosecutor are attempting to gloss over excessive use of force, and unlawful arrest of the defendant, and the equally improper prosecution of the defendant. (f) The Purpose and Effect of Imposing upon the Defendant a Sentence Authorized for the Offense.

I respectfully submit that no useful purpose could or would be served by convicting this defendant and sentencing him. The only thing that might be accomplished would be that the defendant would acquire a criminal record which might interest the media and cause him to be embarrassed in his work as a lecturer, instructor, and television performer; all of which could be nothing but detrimental to society and him. (g) The Impact of a Dismissal on the Safety and Welfare of a Community. It is respectfully submitted that the only impact upon the safety or welfare of a community by a dismissal of the charges herein, would be to increase the safety and welfare of the community if, for no other reason, that a dismissal might cause members of the Police Department of the City of New York to act in a lawful manner and not use excessive force upon the innocent public. (h) The Impact of a Dismissal Upon the Confidence of the Public in the Criminal Justice System. I respectfully submit that a dismissal of the instant charges would have no affect except to increase the confidence of the defendant and the public in the criminal justice system and would and should renew the faith of the defendant, and that of the public, in our system of criminal justice. (i) The Attitude of the Complainant with Respect to the Motion. The attitude of the complainant is not known, except from the actions of the prosecution, it must appear that they oppose this motion. It is respectfully submitted that in the instant case, this is of no relevance. (j) Any Other Relevant Fact Indicating that a Judgment of Conviction Would Serve No Useful Purpose. I respectfully submit it is virtually impossible to conceive of a case where a Judgemnt of Conviction could and would serve less of a useful purpose then the instant case. I further submit that the physical and emotional harm suffered by this defendant in the arrest, assault and imprisonment in this case is so great, that any further prosecution would be morally improper and devoid of any element of human kindness and humane purpose.

7. I have ordered and paid for a copy of the hospital records from Mother Cabrini Hospital, which they have promised to mail to me by now. To date, I have not received them, and if they are not received by the 25th of the month, I will subpoena for the return date of the motion herein.

8. I submit that the defendant's prior good record and service to the community and dedication to the entertainment of, and informing the public is such, that justice would be served by the granting of the within motion, and a dismissal of the charges herein.
